

All About Going to School

We go to school to learn about the world we live in!

Kids go to school on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays during the school year.

Kids do not go to school on Saturdays or Sundays.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
No School	School	School	School	School	School	No School

There is also no school in the summer or on certain holidays like Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Easter.

How do kids get to school?

Some kids take a bus to school.

Some kids get a ride to school in a car.

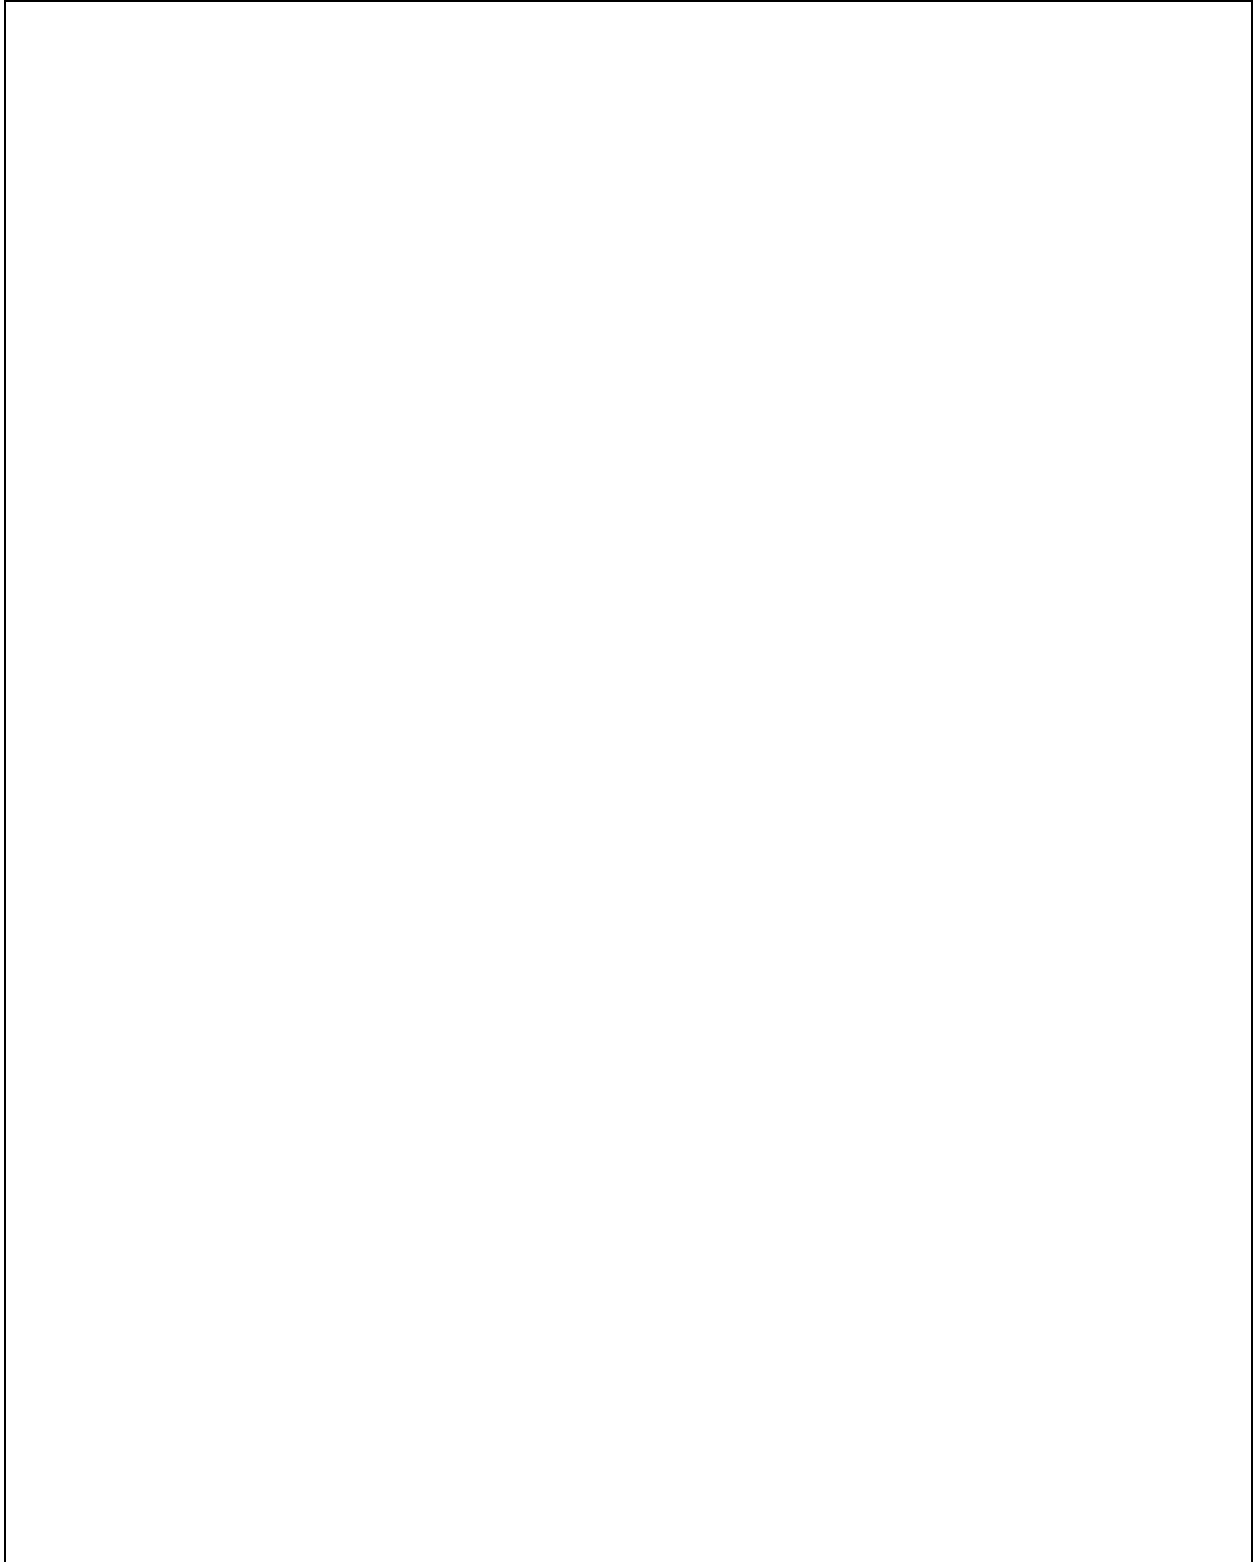

Some kids walk to school.

Some kids ride a bike to school.

Use this space to draw or write about how you will get to school.

When I go to school in the morning, I say goodbye to my parents and I will see them again after school.

Where will you be when you say goodbye to your mom or dad in the morning?

At the front door of your house? At the bus stop? In front of your school?

Circle the picture below that shows where you will be when you say goodbye to your parents in the morning.

Things that will happen on the first day of school are:

seeing your new classroom,

meeting your new teacher,

meeting new kids in your class,

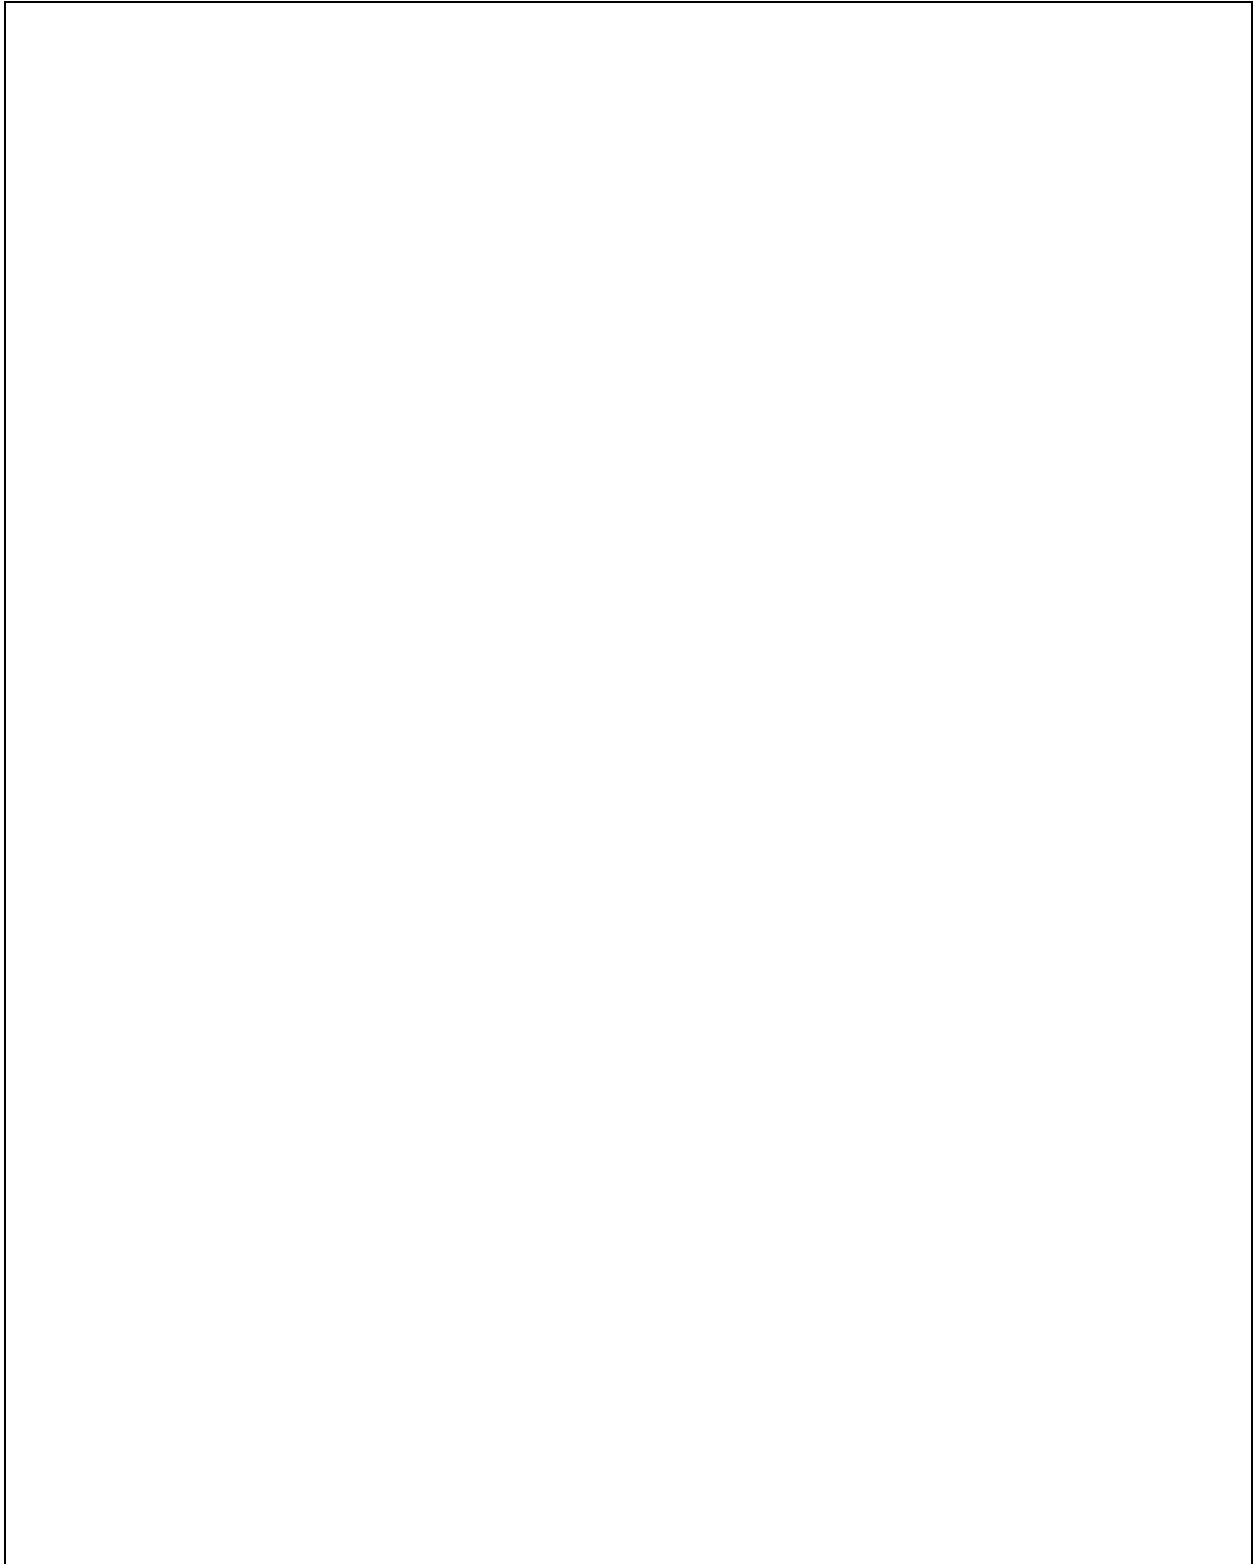

going to the cafeteria for lunch,

and packing up your belongings to go home.

Use this space to draw or write about what else might happen on your first day of school.

When you are in school you will learn the classroom rules and your teacher will tell you what you are supposed to do during the school day.

You may be asked to:

raise your hand and wait to be called on before talking,

sit quietly in your chair when the teacher is teaching,

and do your school work at your desk.

Use this space to draw or write about what else your teacher might ask you to do during the school day.

At the end of the day you will leave your classroom and go home.

Circle the picture that shows how you will get home from school.

Will you take a bus?

Get picked up in a car?

Walk home?

Ride your bike home?

Use this space to draw or write about what you think might happen in your school day that is different from this story.
